The 10 best burgers in the country

By The Hub team May 27, 2016

Everyone loves a good burger and probably has a go-to favorite that always hits the spot. With so many different types of burger options out there, it's hard to nail down exactly what makes one best in class. Sometimes the best burger is plain and simple, while other times it means topping a prime piece of meat with some over-the-top delicacies. Finding the best burgers in the country isn't an easy task, but we've narrowed it down to some of our favorites that always seem to top the charts in their respective cities. From coast to coast, simple to gourmet, check out our best burgers in the country.

9. Billionaire Burger

Leave it to Las Vegas to have a burger that means winning big on the slots in order to afford it. At Holsteins, for about double the price of all the other burgers on the menu, the Billionaire Burger is made with Kobe beef, foie gras torchon, port onion marmalade, and topped with frisee and truffle mayonnaise. Make sure to leave room for dessert since this place is also famous for their boozy milkshakes.
