St. Patrick's Day is March 17. There are plenty of things to do in Las Vegas to celebrate. Green beers, great food and more! Check out these happenings around Las Vegas!

FOOD AND DRINK SPECIALS

Holsteins Shakes and Buns

The Luck of the Irish Burger is a take on the Irish-American classic corned beef and cabbage, made with a beef patty topped with shaved corned beef, Swiss cheese, braised 'green' cabbage and Russian dressing and served on Marble Rye Bun. To complement the hearty burger, try Holsteins' Frozen Grasshopper Bam-Boozled (alcoholic shake), a green treat whipped up with peppermint, chocolate, Crème de Menthe, and Pinnacle Chocolate Vodka. No need to follow a leprechaun, these specials are as good as a pot 'o gold. The Cosmopolitan of Las Vegas.

Flour & Barley Brick Oven Pizza

Inspired by the signature flavors of everyone's favorite Irish holiday, Flour & Barley Brick Oven Pizza is offering a St. Patrick's Day special to give everyone a little bit o' luck. Created using traditional Irish ingredients, the Luck of the Irish dish features corned beef, cabbage, sausage potatoes and topped with a delicious pesto cream sauce. It's available March 14-17 for $17.50. The LINQ.

Public House

Public House at the Venetian Las Vegas will offer a variety of specials on March 17 only including:

- Traditional corned beef and cabbage, beer-braised with baby carrots, pee wee potatoes and an IPA-Grain mustard sauce. $26.
- Irish Coffee Cheesecake, Jameson caramel Chantilly, hazelnut crumble. $9.
- An entire menu of special cocktails (attached) as well as $4, 12 ounce Guinness, $4, Irish car bombs, and $3, 12 ounce draft green beer.

Haute Doggery's

Create your own luck on St. Patrick's Day with Haute Doggery's Luck O' The Irish Dog, a char-grilled frank topped with corned beef, sauerkraut, Swiss cheese and mustard ($6.99), available only on March 17. Pair it with an ice cold brew and a side of poutine fries with cheese curds and brown gravy. Haute Doggery at the Ling is open until midnight on weekdays and 2 a.m. weekends for your late night fix.
